

Wisconsin Women's Fund Micro Grant

Wisconsin Women's Fund would like to support female bicycle mechanics that work in Wisconsin by offering a reimbursement of the Bosch eBike Technical Training fee. Ladies, this could save you up to $175 as a student.

Who is eligible?

Female bicycle mechanics working in Wisconsin

Value per student?

$40.00 - $175.00

How it works?

After completing the Bosch eBike Technical Training, the first 10 applicants that submit this form* and attach their receipt and certificate of completion will be awarded reimbursement. A check will be mailed within 4 weeks.

Deadline for submission

April 6, 2018

Training nearest to us...

BOSCH eBike Technical Milwaukee, WI

Thu, March 15, 2018

10:00 AM – 3:00 PM CDT

$40 – $175

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/bosch-ebike-technical-milwaukee-wi-registration-38229081211?aff=es2>

Students: You must work in Wisconsin. After completion of the above training (any location), email your personal information* and attach your receipt and certification to info@wi-women.org. Type BOSCH eBike Training Micro Grant in the subject line and include the following in the body.

Name

Address

City/State/Zip

Employer / Organization Name

Address

City/State/Zip

How is it you became a bicycle mechanic?

What other training have you received/products you're certified to wrench on?

How long have you been wrenching?

Include a photo of you wrenching on an eBike.

*Some of your information or your photo will be used on our website, but it will not be shared or used outside this program. Submitting this grant request is giving us permission to use as stated.

The Wisconsin Women's Fund, Inc. is a Wisconsin-based charitable & educational 501(c)(3) organization supported by Wisconsin Women Cycling, LLC and other generous businesses and individuals. Donations are 100% tax-deductible to the extent of the law. Wisconsin Women's Fund, Inc | PO Box 694 | Cedarburg, WI 53012 | www.WisconsinWomensFund.org | EIN 81-0753971